In-Person service in Webster Hall

Johanna Munson, Service Lead

Life's twists and turns can take us in unexpected directions. How do we come to terms with the reality that change is inevitable? In this interactive service we'll engage with and answer some elemental questions about who we are and what our life means to us.

The Clergy Consultation Network

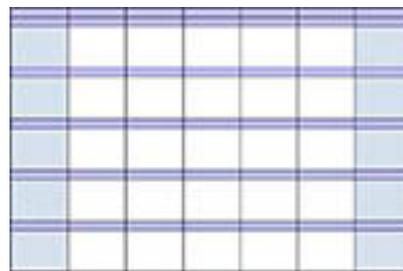

Sunday January 22nd
10:00 a.m.
In-Person service in Webster Hall

Rev. Zackrie Vinczen
Johanna Munson, Worship Associate

Recent challenges to Roe Vs Wade have sparked many religious communities to reflect on their stance on matters of abortion and reproductive care. However, this is not the first time such conversations have taken place in houses of worship.

Please plan to remain in Webster Hall after the service for a mid-year congregational meeting.

News and Announcements

January is a time for reviewing and renewing priorities.

Many people take the opportunity at the start of a New Year to make resolutions. Eat healthier, exercise more, connect more often

Our Congregational Mission

*Worship with open hearts
Nurture a learning spirit
Serve justice with compassion*

with friends, etc. This is a result of looking at the past year and reflecting on where we are as individuals. It is no surprise that we also reflect on our community during the January Congregational Meeting.

This month, on January 22nd, we will gather for an update on the status of Cedars Unitarian Universalist Church. So many things have changed since September, and more changes are on the horizon. The Board of Trustees will share updates on items such as:

- What is the impact of Reverend Zackrie reducing his time to 3/4?
- What is the future of Faith Formation and Music Coordination?
- What did the Space Task Force discover and recommend?
- What is the expected budget status at the end of the year?

I hope you will all come to join us on January 22nd.

Jeff Philip
President, Board of Trustees

Social Action as a Cedars Priority

Documenting past-year accomplishments, Cedars' Social Action Committee has shared a summary of 2022 activities in a year-end report (Link).

Reorganizing itself as a single comprehensive justice/action entity, the committee collected almost $6000 in monthly special collections, participated with Congregation Kol Shalom in the preparation and offering of monthly Super Supper meals, and guided Cedars' engagement in another dozen significant programs and activities, as well as in sponsoring social action-oriented Sunday sermons or associated activities.

Additionally, the committee has achieved board recognition and approval of social action as a top Cedars priority for the coming 2023 year.

January Special Collection

Cedars organizes and gathers a monthly Special Collection for community outreach as a way to educate our congregation about the work of various non-profit organizations that reflect our values, and to channel our generosity in support of them.

On January 22nd, the Social Action Committee has chosen to collect money for the Kitsap Racial Equity and Empowerment Fund (KREEF). All money donated in the Sunday offering on January 22nd will benefit the Kitsap Racial Equity and Empowerment

Musical Notes

Much hard work and dedication goes into providing music for our Sunday services. And each week we are grateful for those willing to make music and lead us all in song. This week, we offer special thanks to Nick Coletta for music accompaniment.

Sunday Hymns:

1. Where Do We Come From \(#1003\)
2. How Could Anyone \(#1053\)
3. When the Spirit Says Do \(#1024\)

The Music Committee Needs Your Help

Do you sing or play an instrument? Here's an opportunity to share your talents and add special music at a Sunday service. We'd love to hear from you. And if you're part of a small instrumental or vocal group, we'd be delighted to have the group provide music. Students who are taking lessons will find this a great opportunity to get some performance experience.

In addition to special music, there are opportunities to play Gathering, Prelude,

Fund, a program through the Kitsap Community Foundation that addresses systemic inequities which disproportionately impact Black and other communities of color and that are amplified by COVID-19.

In 2021, KREEF awarded $117,500 to more than 20 Black, Indigenous, and people of color-led or serving nonprofits and fiscally sponsored projects whose leadership or boards are reflective of and accountable to communities of color, in particular the Black community throughout Kitsap County. For more information about this program, visit Kitsap Racial Equity and Empowerment Fund.

If you would like to receive a tax deduction for your donation, please write a check payable to Kitsap Racial Equity and Empowerment Fund to place in the offering basket or send it to the Cedars Church Office by January 31st.

Safe Gatherings at Cedars

Spread of viruses (COVID, Respiratory Syncytial virus and the flu) surged late in 2022, but didn't grow to the levels some health professionals predicted. Those rates appear to be coming back down in January. As we watch the health data, Cedars UU Church will continue to urge caution in the weeks ahead.

Cedars encourages people to wear masks for indoor, in person gatherings. And remember to get your annual flu vaccine and COVID booster. A shot in the arm is better than a week in bed.

Stay safe, everyone!

Rest is Resistance

Please join us after service on January 29th when Rev. Zackrie will facilitate a discussion on rest as a form of resistance.

Based on the work of Tricia Hersey who leads a movement called the Nap Ministry, we will consider rest as a form of social justice and reparation.

Tricia, a theologian, artist, and community organizer, is author of Rest is Resistance: A Manifesto and curates spaces and forums for communities to rest. She says, "The Nap Ministry is not a religious movement but a spiritual antidote to the very earthly problems Offering, or Leaving music for a service. We also are looking for pianists to accompany hymns.

Ready to volunteer? Archer will be happy to discuss scheduling. If you are interested, intrigued, or tempted to participate, please contact Archer Philip or Audrey Blair, with any questions or comments you may have.

Sunday Services Space Evaluation

During Cedars' upcoming mid-year congregational meeting, following the January 22nd Sunday service in the Island School's Webster Hall, there will be an opportunity to learn about the findings and recommendations of a special Space Evaluation Task Force formed in September by the Board of Trustees to conduct research on alternative locations for Cedars' Sunday services.

A draft report summarizing the information-gathering process and conclusions can be found here.

If you have any questions prior to the meeting, you can contact Mike Cox at 206-799-3725 or toxman57@gmail.com.

Got Yarn? We Can Use It!

If you have yarn sitting around that you probably will never get around to using, how about contributing it to the LGBTQ+ group at Kingston Middle School?

Cedars UU provided them with knitting supplies at the start of the school year, and they have been very popular with students who are enjoying teaching each other how to knit.

Yarn that is soft and easy to use are their only requirements. We'll have a box at church on Sunday for donations and will bring it to the office after church for the rest of the week.

Thanks!
Patricia Erdmann

From the Bookkeeper’s Desk

This year, since we know most taxpayers no longer itemize deductions, we will not be sending out 2022 tax letters to all church members. If you do itemize your IRS deductions and need a letter detailing all of your 2022 contributions, please send an email request to bookkeeper@cedarsuuchurch.org. A letter will be sent to you showing all January - December 2022 payments received by Cedars for pledges, non-pledged gifts, and special collections.

In early January, pledge statements will be sent out. These statements will reflect all pledge payments received from July through December 2022. That time frame encompasses the first half of the Cedars fiscal year, which ends in June 2023.

If you have any questions, please feel free to email me at the address above.

Cedars Creativity Fair 2023

See What Others Have Been Doing

Our identity as a congregational community is strengthened by the activities and gatherings we enjoy together, as well as by the ways we can find to know each other better.

In past years we organized occasional Creativity Fairs to share individual interests and capabilities following Webster Hall services, and in response to the more recent pandemic we have shifted to on-line or virtual versions of those fairs.

Organized to provide opportunities to see and enjoy artful products and demonstrations of the creativity present in our talented and capable congregation, those fairs helped us get to know and appreciate each other.

Continuing that sharing of individual interests and creativity, please join the fun and enjoy the growing show using the link below! If you have something to share, send a photo and description to office@cedarsuuchurch.org.
