News and Announcements

(Re)Building Democracy

This very relevant theme is featured in the Spring issue of the UU World, our national denomination's inspirational and insight-loaded periodical that comes to mailboxes as a benefit of membership.

This special issue of the magazine examines how we might create a more just, equitable, and antiracist society, explores the fault lines of injustice in our nation, and imagines how we might rebuild our democracy.

An introductory editorial by UUA President Reverend Susan Frederick-Gray, notes that our commitment to democracy is not just political or moral, but grows from our affirmation of the inherent worth and dignity of every person and the knowledge that we are all interconnected. It reflects the fact that our theology is not so much concerned with the afterlife, but is accountable to human experience and the conditions of people's lives here and now.

If you haven't seen it, the magazine is also accessible online at uuworld.org

Cedars' Annual Meeting

Cedars' bylaws include requirements for an annual business meeting held prior to June 30th, the end of the church year, for electing members of the Board and Nominating Committee and to conduct other business deemed necessary by the Board.

The meeting will be held virtually again this year, following the Sunday Service on June 6, and a thirty-percent quorum of members is required for the conduct of business.

Candidates identified by the Nominating Committee to fill open Board positions include Mike Cox, Robyn Teske and Jeff Philip, with Dawna Kramer, Kassia Sing, Herb Hethcote, and Carol Ann Davidson continuing. Reverend Zackrie Vinczen also serves as a non-voting, ex-officio member of the Board.

Judy Willot has been identified as a candidate for the Nominating Committee, with one open position remaining. Continuing members are Johanna Munson and Susan Shaffer, with Carol Ann Davidson serving as the Board representative.

A proposed 2021-22 budget has been reviewed and tentatively approved after many months of work by the Budget Leadership Team composed of Frank Petrie, Fran

Faith Formation at Cedars

Chalice Lighting as a Spiritual Practice

You may have noticed a number of different folks lighting and extinguishing the chalice in our Sunday services. It's part of an effort to get more people involved and make sure we "see" each other even when we can't meet in person.

Do you want to light the chalice? It doesn't have to be a solo affair either! Families and couples can do this together. We all look forward to seeing you. More information about doing this is available here.

Bridging

In our Unitarian Universalist faith, the Bridging Ceremony celebrates the transition of our youth from their high school experience into young adulthood. This ritual helps us -- youth and families and all church members -- recognize and honor this important threshold moment. Right now, in these days where school is online and all the traditional

Korten, David Barnes and Reverend Zackrie..

A summary of this year's Belonging Initiative is also planned as a feature of the meeting.

Staff News

I'm excited to share the news that our staff team at Cedars is growing!

On June 1st Carolyn Kerns will be starting at Cedars as our Office Administrator.

Carolyn recently graduated with a bachelor's degree in public relations from Northwest Missouri State University. She is originally from Lincoln, Nebraska and is new to the area. She's looking forward to getting to know all of you and exploring Washington.

trappings of senior year are missing, these rituals are more vital than ever.

Do you have someone in your family who is graduating from high school this year? Are you yourself graduating from high school? Would you help to shape a bridging ceremony at Cedars?

Rev. Zackrie and Kathryn Jay would love to hear from you!

An Invitation

Do you know any high school students who would like to explore Unitarian Universalism with other high schoolers?

YUUP (the Young Unitarian Universalists Project) is launching a platform to forge connections, work together, support each other, and find leadership opportunities. It will have a variety of different topics and groups within it for UU youth and recent bridgers across the country.

There are a couple of steps to joining the network: first, the youth must fill out the Youth Drop-In Registry for their region or registry for recent bridgers. Once the registry is filled out and confirmed by a parent and a minister or church administrator, youth will receive a Mighty Network invitation to get on YUUP.

Spread the word! YUUP is for everyone. We hope to see you soon!

Chalice Circles

Are you interested in meeting regularly with people to listen and learn and to deepen spiritual connections to yourself and your community? Consider joining a Cedars Chalice Circle!

This month we will discuss Summer Hours, Olivier Assayas's captivating film about a treasure-filled inheritance. A silver-haired

Although the zoom format is not the same as meeting in person, it is a step in committing to a regular meditation practice. Each session includes 5 minutes of chanting, 25 minutes of silent meditation and at least 30 minutes of informal group discussion.

For more information or the Zoom link, contact Dawna Kramer at raddjk@yahoo.com or via phone number from the Breeze directory.

Cedars Creativity Fair 2021

See What Others Have Been Doing To Cope with Social Isolation

Our identity as a congregational community has been weakened by the COVID-19 pandemic, and one response has been to re-imagine virtual versions of the several after-service Creativity Fairs that were held in Webster Hall in recent years.

Organized to provide opportunities to see and enjoy artful products and demonstrations of the creativity present in our talented and capable congregation, those fairs helped us get to know and appreciate each other.

Please join the fun by sharing what you have been doing and enjoy the growing show using the link below!

Cedars Creativity Fair 2021

A recent addition to the show:

Keri Schmit clearly enjoys costumed roles in her teaching profession. Here she chose to participate in "Crazy Hair Day" with a bold mask and a hat that was given to Miranda in Scotland. She recalls feeling pretty silly wearing this while having deep conversations on the history of racism in our country "and several people asked if it was my real hair? Really???"

matriarch enthroned among her children and grandchildren at the beginning of the film leaves behind a charming country house and a cherished art collection, and her heirs, as is normal, must figure out what to do with it all after her death.

The group discussion will begin at 7:00, but the zoom link will be active by 6:45 to allow social interaction before the discussion. For more information contact Joan Spencer or Jane Martin.

In discussion with the Pastoral Care Team, Rev. Zackrie confirmed that he would appreciate being informed if anyone in the Cedars community tests positive for Covid-19.

The information will remain confidential if the person so wishes, but Rev. Zackrie's awareness could help with contact tracing as well as determining what support and possible services could be offered by Pastoral Care Team members and perhaps the larger Cedars UU community as well.
