The Fifth Spirit and the Making of a Future We Cannot See

Sunday August 15th
10:00 a.m.
Virtual Worship Service

Rev. William Levwood,
DRE Helen Rivers Cassara,
and Music Director
Angel de Armendi of the UU Church of Tallahassee with guest musician Li Kynvi

We live in a time in which a shocking amount of lies and deceit fill the airwaves. It's equally shocking to come to terms with how normal this is in The United States of America, how so much of our history has been distorted to fit a grand national narrative built largely on lies.

The movie Frozen 2 gives us an opportunity to reveal the truth about our past, and in doing so, to participate in the making of a future we cannot see.

Toward an Ecological Civilization: From Emergency to Emerging

Sunday August 22nd
10:00 a.m.
Virtual Worship Service

David Korten, Guest Speaker;
Mike Cox, Worship Associate

Rev. Barry Andrews, discussion facilitator

As science warned that continuing business as usual will bring devastating and irreversible environmental consequences, a global pandemic disrupted every aspect of modern life.

We now stand at an unprecedented choice point: A moment of opportunity to create a world of material sufficiency and spiritual abundance for all aligned with UU principles

12:30 p.m. All-Ages In-Person Picnic

Please join us for an in-person gathering at the park and playground adjacent to the Suquamish Museum.

Bring your own bag lunch and water bottle for play and visit time at the Suquamish Shores Natural Play Area and then in the nearby Suquamish Museum to learn more about the Suquamish Tribe and their history. Covered picnic tables and public restrooms are available. Covid guidelines for summer Cedars in-person gatherings will apply.

The Suquamish Shores Natural Play Area is located behind the Suquamish Museum and across the street from Chief Seattle's gravesite.

News and Announcements

Congregational Survey

The Cedars Board is beginning to review and process information gathered in the congregational survey emailed to members on July 13th. Your ideas and opinions are important in the planning for a successful 2021-22 church year, so please respond if you haven't already done so.

There is a link to the survey here for your convenience: Cedars Survey

The survey will be closing on August 16th.

If you haven't received a survey, please contact Carolyn Kerns at office@cedarsuuchurch.org or during her office hours at 206-780-0373.

Update Required for UU World Member List

UU World has asked us to update the mailing addresses of those that receive the UU World magazine. If we don't have your current address, please contact Carolyn Kerns at office@cedarsuuchurch.org or update your information in Breeze.

Please update your information by August 20th.

In-Person Safety at Cedars

As recently announced, Cedars is implementing special safety practices for Covid-19 protection during all in-person events planned during the remainder of the summer. Detailed information and instruction about these practices is available on the Cedars website, and the basic thinking about masking has been summarized in the illustrations located at the bottom of this newsletter.

An Invitation

Do you know any high school students who would like to explore Unitarian Universalism with other high schoolers?

YUUP (the Young Unitarian Universalists Project) is launching a platform to forge connections, work together, support each other, and find leadership opportunities. It will have a variety of different topics and groups within it for UU youth and recent bridgers across the country.

There are a couple of steps to joining the network: first, the youth must fill out the Youth Drop-In Registry for their region or registry for recent bridgers. Once the registry is filled out and confirmed by a parent and a minister or church administrator, youth will receive a Mighty Network invitation to get on YUUP.

Spread the word! YUUP is for everyone. We

1:30 p.m.

Seeking "Salvation by Bibliography" as our late friend Marvin Evans used to say, we meet to discuss books that can intrigue and might enlighten us.

Our summer selection, proposed by Mark Shaffer, is

The Requiem of the Human Soul by Jeremy Lent.

In this provocative novel, the reader is faced with challenging questions about spirituality, history, and global politics: Could our race "evolve" itself to a higher plane? At what cost and benefit? If we lost what is now the "human race" as a result, would that be so bad, given our sordid and shameful history? On the other hand, is there something special, our soul, worth keeping at any price? Ultimately, this novel forces the reader to grapple with the fundamental question: what does it mean to be human?

We will discuss the book in its entirety (tentatively via Zoom) on September 14th. For more information contact Alan Miller or Mary Romeo.

Cedars Creativity Fair 2021

See What Others Have Been Doing To Cope with Social Isolation

Our identity as a congregational community has been weakened by the COVID-19 pandemic, and one response has been to re-imagine virtual versions of the several after-service Creativity Fairs that were held in Webster Hall in recent years.

Organized to provide opportunities to see and enjoy artful products and demonstrations of the creativity present in our talented and capable congregation, those fairs helped us get to know and appreciate each other.

Please join the fun by sharing what you have been doing and enjoy the growing show using the link below!

Cedars Creativity Fair 2021

Jane Martin actively participates in the annual Women's Shelter Jewelry Project that collects all kinds of donated jewelry for distribution to women's shelters and programs for women and families in the Puget Sound area. The annual sale of the best of the donated jewelry happened last weekend and raised over $8,000 for shelters. Any and all kinds of jewelry are gratefully accepted at Esther's Fabrics, Bainbridge Arts and Crafts, Soul Mates and Bay Hay and Feed.

hope to see you soon!

Meditation

Although the zoom format is not the same as meeting in person, it is a step in committing to a regular meditation practice. Each session includes 5 minutes of chanting, 25 minutes of silent meditation and at least 30 minutes of informal group discussion.

The Meditation Group will take July off as a summer break and reconvene in August.

For more information or the Zoom link, contact Dawna Kramer at raddjk@yahoo.com or via phone number from the Breeze directory.

Cedars Knitting/Crafting Circle

Cedars knitters and crafters enjoy virtual social gatherings on first Wednesdays of the month at 1:30 p.m. and third Mondays at 7:00 p.m.

Both groups have decided to take a summer pause however, agreeing that "It's just too nice to be indoors and Zooming."

So stay tuned as autumn approaches, and watch for an announcement about resuming the activity, perhaps even mask-to-mask if not face-to-face as our lives return to normal.

The Wednesday afternoon group is now hosted by Linda Andrews, and the Monday evening group is hosted by Hilda Wiens.

Contact Carol Ann Davidson for details.

Morning Reflection Sessions

During Morning Reflection, led by Rev. Zackrie, participants are invited for meditation and discussion of brief sections from a selected and inspirational source.

The group recently finished Kahlil Gibran's The Prophet and has decided to take the summer off while considering its next selection.

Watch for a late summer announcement about reconvening.

Join the Pastoral Care Team

Caring for one another is a core Unitarian practice, and the Cedars Pastoral Care Team is central to this ministry. We can offer a listening presence, connection, and hope to members of our Cedars community in times of need. We send cards, make phone calls, provide information resources and support

Guidelines for using Cedars Center

The Cedars Board is making the following restrictions to reduce the risk of COVID-19 transmission to the few people who must enter the Cedars Center to keep us functioning.

1. Permission from staff or Board Member is required for entry.
2. Sign in when entering and sign out when leaving.
3. Use hand sanitizer when entering.
4. Wear a mask and practice social distancing.
5. Avoid touching your face.
6. Please disinfect high contact surfaces when you enter and before you leave: door handles, light switches, computer mouse and keyboard, desks, tabletops, countertops, sinks, toilet, and shared equipment such as pens, staplers, and clipboards.

Thank you for helping to keep us safe!

family and friends who are caregivers.

The Team meets just once a month with our minister. We are now expanding the Team, and we would love to have you join us.

For more information about the Pastoral Care Team, please contact our new office administrator, Carolyn Kerns at office@cedarsuuchurch.org.

Pastoral Care Concerns

Mary Clear Padilla has relocated temporarily to be with her daughter in Canada and has a temporary address at:

Mary Clear Padilla
805 Smyth Road
Ottawa, ON K1G 1P2
Canada

Her 206 phone number is still active and she can make and receive calls and texts.

In discussion with the Pastoral Care Team, Rev. Zackrie confirmed that he would appreciate being informed if anyone in the Cedars community tests positive for Covid-19.

The information will remain confidential if the person so wishes, but Rev. Zackrie's awareness could help with contact tracing as well as determining what support and possible services could be offered by Pastoral Care Team members and perhaps the larger Cedars UU community as well.

Social Justice News

Reform Our Justice System: Targeting the Poor

Banning debt-based drivers license suspensions is a goal of the Kitsap Equity, Race, And Community Engagement Coalition, Kitsap ERACE. The organization's criminal justice team added the objective to its list of collective actions after conferring with those working with impacted people.

Kitsap ERACE is a collaboration of many groups, organizations, and individuals, all striving for racial equity in Kitsap County. More information is available here.
