News and Announcements

New! Social Justice Committee

Our Congregational Mission

Greetings! My name is Carol Ann Davidson and I am the Board liaison to a new unified Social Justice committee. The past two years have been hard for many. It is easy to feel helpless given some of the challenges we are facing in the world. Working together, even in small ways, can help to bring a sense of purpose and integrity through living our values. It can also help to ease anxiety. Many of our congregants have expressed the desire to get back into the community and recommit to social justice work and your Board of Trustees agrees. It is time to begin again!

Prior to the pandemic, Cedars had a Social Action Committee that focused on community service and a Social Justice Committee that focused on education and outreach events. At present, both committees have dissolved although Super Suppers continue to be supported by a few former committee members. The Cedars Board's vision is to revitalize our efforts with a newly formed Social Justice Committee that will join together with the Faith Formation and Green Sanctuary Committee members to plan a year in which Cedars recommit to social action projects and social justice work on Bainbridge Island and North Kitsap.

Our first event is this Saturday at Fishline House in Poulsbo! The Green Sanctuary Committee has some great ideas for the new year too. Come join us!

If you are interested in learning more, please reach out to Carol Ann Davidson.

All-Ages Fishline Service Project December 5th, 12:30 to 3:00 p.m. Fishline, Poulsbo

Join us on Sunday, December 5th for an all-ages, family-friendly afternoon of service at Fishline, which provides food, emergency services, and resources to those in need. Activities will include packaging and sorting items, restocking shelves, grinding coffee, and other tasks in their Poulsbo warehouse.

Fishline will provide a brief orientation and help assign and coordinate tasks (please try to arrive a few minutes before the start time). Please also remember to wear a mask, warm clothing, and closed-toed shoes. The minimum age for warehouse tasks is 12, but children under 12 will be able to contribute by making notes or cards for those receiving Fishline services.

RSVP: Please email Hugh Handeyside (hugh.handeyside@gmail.com) if you're intending to join, so we can get a rough head count beforehand.

Be a part of Worship at Cedars

As we prepare to enter the fall and gear back up for the program year, we are looking for individuals ready to help with the creation of weekly worship. There are a few important roles that we are hoping to fill and find people willing to join the rest of the team in meaning making work we do.

Preaching: Once a month Rev. Zackrie is away from Cedars, and we need people willing to preach and lead services on these dates. This is your chance to share your thoughts on a topic with the rest of the community. Preaching can also provide you with a chance to deepen your own understanding on a topic as you research, write, and reflect in preparation.

Worship Tech Team: As we continue to navigate the presence of COVID-19 and begin conceptualizing what comes next with our online presence, we need people to assist with the technology side of things. Currently we hope to find a few individuals to help with recording and video editing. We also need help running the sound system at in-person services. No prior experience is necessary, but it does help to have a familiarity with technology and a willingness to learn.

Contact Carol Ann Davidson for more information.

Exciting News! Parent Chalice Circle Forming

December 12th
7:00-8:30 pm
Join us virtually on Zoom

The Parent Chalice Circle is a new Cedars venture of the Faith Formation Committee. The idea is to create a space where parents, grandparents, and caregivers can meet regularly to share in the questions and experiences of nurturing faith formation in our children and in our own lives.

How can we support the spiritual lives of our children, teens, and young adults as they grapple with the day-to-day challenges of growing up as well as with big issue questions such as Covid, racism, climate change, politics, religion, reproductive justice, nuclear power, war?

We will meet once a month and utilize the UU Principles as touchstones and reference points for exploration.

Contact Cory Munson for more information.

Family Vespers Announcement

On Wednesdays at 6pm Kitsap UU Fellowship and Cedars UU Church have started co-leading an informal and fun family-style vespers service for children and youth and their guardians. Join Rev. Jessica and Rev. Zackrie for a time of poetry, music, and stories. We'll light the chalice, share our joys and sorrows, and enjoy some time together.

To join, use the zoom link below.

Faithful Practices Reading Group

How's your prayer life? What spiritual practices ground you? Where do you find meaning throughout your week?

If you find yourself struggling to answer these questions, you're

Worship Associates: In this role you get a chance to work with Rev. Zackrie and other service leaders to reflect on a topic and share your voice with others. This is a great opportunity for people to develop as a public speaker or experiment with creative ways of conveying ideas. In addition, being a worship associate is a great way to become more widely known within the Cedars community.

If you are interested in joining the worship team in any of these roles or have questions, please email Rev. Zackrie at minister@cedarsuuchurch.org

Christmas Child Campaign

Please consider supporting local children and families by giving to Fishline's Christmas Child program. Your gift will help local families in need provide stocking stuffers and gifts for their children during this holiday season.

Evans Reading Group

We invite you to join us on Tuesday
January 11th at 1:30 p.m.

Seeking "Salvation by Bibliography" as our late friend Marvin Evans used to say, we meet to discuss books that can intrigue and might enlighten us.

Our January selection, proposed by Richard Wilson, is TAO: The Watercourse Way by Alan Watts. In this final (and posthumously published) product of a prolific and creative life of spiritual exploration, Alan Watts (with collaborator Al Chung-liang Huang), shares the deep and meaningful interrelationship of Taoism and the Chinese language.

"Just as Chinese writing is at least one step closer to nature than ours, so the ancient philosophy of the Tao is of a skillful and not alone. Many people struggle to talk about the spiritual dimensions of their life. If this describes you or you're simply interested in learning more about spiritual practices from a UU perspective, consider joining Rev. Zackrie for a group reading of the book "Faithful Practices: Everyday Ways to Feed your Spirit."

This group is meeting on zoom from 2-3:30 p.m. on the following dates:

[December off]

January 22nd

February 19th

Cedars Creativity Fair 2021

See What Others Have Been Doing To Cope with Social Isolation

Our identity as a congregational community has been weakened by the COVID-19 pandemic, and one response has been to re-imagine virtual versions of the several after-service Creativity Fairs that were held in Webster Hall in recent years.

Organized to provide opportunities to see and enjoy artful products and demonstrations of the creativity present in our talented and capable congregation, those fairs helped us get to know and appreciate each other.

Please join the fun by sharing what you have been doing and enjoy the growing show using the link below!

Cedars Creativity Fair 2021

Sally Wilson says: "These ladybugs made tasty appetizers to go with that turkey dinner last week" intelligent following of the course, current, and grain of natural phenomena — seeing human life as an integral feature of the world process, and not as alien and opposed to it."

We will discuss the book (tentatively via Zoom) on January 11th. For more information contact Alan Miller or Mary Romeo.

Social Action News

Kitsap Immigration and Assistance Center has released the following:

We are paying close attention to the events unfolding in Afghanistan. Like all of you, we are heartbroken for the human beings caught in this humanitarian crisis, especially women, girls and LGBTQ+ Afghans.

The Puget Sound region will be receiving an influx of refugees in the next days and weeks. There are numerous ways you can help with their resettlement. Both temporary and long-term housing is an urgent priority. Additionally, volunteers are needed to provide host homes, transport people from the airport, help settle people into apartments or assist with English language classes. Donations of household and other necessities, as well as cash donations are also needed.

Here are some committed organizations that are providing assistance, and all need volunteers and financial support.

The International Rescue Committee: This agency has a webpage with updated on-the-ground information, wish lists of items to purchase for "Welcome Kits" (linked here), and volunteer opportunities.

World Relief, Seattle: This agency is calling for volunteers and donations (linked here) and has information for the Afghan community as well as volunteers and partners.

The Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Service: This organization is seeking volunteers for airport pickups, mentoring, tutoring, and meal deliveries. They also need financial donations (linked here).

Jewish Family Services, Seattle: They have created an Amazon wish list for household items and other necessities (linked here). other necessities. They are also looking for car seats and are accepting financial donations (linked here).

In-Person Safety at Cedars

For Covid-19 protection, Cedars has implemented special safety practices during all in-person events until further notice.

Detailed information and instruction about these practices is available on the Cedars website, and the basic thinking about masking has been summarized in the illustrations at the bottom of this newsletter.

Guidelines for using Cedars Center

The Cedars Board is making the following restrictions to reduce the risk of COVID-19 transmission to the few people who must enter the Cedars Center to keep us functioning.

1. Permission from staff or Board Member is required for entry.
2. Sign in when entering and sign out when leaving.
3. Use hand sanitizer when entering.
4. Wear a mask and practice social distancing.
5. Avoid touching your face.
6. Please disinfect high contact surfaces when you enter and before you leave: door handles, light switches, computer mouse and keyboard, desks, tabletops, countertops, sinks, toilet, and shared equipment such as pens, staplers, and clipboards.

Thank you for helping to keep us safe!

Afghan American Community of Washington:

Join the Pastoral Care Team

Caring for one another is a core Unitarian practice, and the Cedars Pastoral Care Team is central to this ministry. We can offer a listening presence, connection, and hope to members of our Cedars community in times of need. We send cards, make phone calls, provide information resources and support family and friends who are caregivers.

The Team meets just once a month with our minister. We are now expanding the Team, and we would love to have you join us.

For more information about the Pastoral Care Team, please contact our office administrator, Carolyn Kerns at office@cedarsuuchurch.org.

Pastoral Care Concerns

In discussion with the Pastoral Care Team, Rev. Zackrie confirmed that he would appreciate being informed if anyone in the Cedars community tests positive for Covid-19.

The information will remain confidential if the person so wishes, but Rev. Zackrie's awareness could help with contact tracing as well as determining what support and possible services could be offered by Pastoral Care Team members and perhaps the larger Cedars UU community as well.
