support of them.

On August 14th, the Social Justice Committee has chosen to collect money for Project Backpack. All money donated in the Sunday offering on August 14th will benefit Project Backpack, a program through Helpline House that provides free school supplies and backpacks to children in need. Project Backpack began in 2000 and serves over 130 children each year. Students receive a large bag filled with grade appropriate school supplies including earbuds, paper and more. They receive a gift card to purchase other items as needed and get to select a backpack of their choice. This year lunchboxes will be offered as well. For more information about this program, visit

If you would like to receive a tax deduction for your donation, please write a check payable to Helpline House with a note in the memo "Project Backpack" to place in the offering basket or send it to the Cedars Church Office by August 21st.

Safe Gatherings at Cedars

Our congregation values using sound science and following advice of health agencies to adapt our safety guidelines to the changing status of the COVID-19 virus. You may find our current COVID Safety Guidelines on the Cedars Website. It now includes the current Community Risk Level and a table describing what precautions we are implementing for indoor gatherings. We are currently at GREEN, meaning Masking is optional, but Masks are required when singing.

The Cedars Board of Trustees has also decided to no longer require vaccinations at gatherings, though we do ask that all unvaccinated individuals wear masks and maintain appropriate physical distancing at all times. Community vaccination rates in Kitsap County are now at 80% and we know that a few people at Cedars have not been able to obtain vaccines. Our gathering precautions include social and physical distancing and increased ventilation at the current Community Risk Level.

The people at Cedars UU Church care deeply about each other and the community we have built together. We trust that each person will act responsibly to protect themselves and others using masks, distancing, and other precautions. Following these guidelines will allow more people to gather and join in experiences safely.

We are all in this together, and as we say in unison on Sundays: let's "treat all people kindly because we are one family."

Historian Buerge has assembled disparate accounts of the time from the 1780's to the

Elder Spiritual Study Group

Calling all Crones, Sages, Elders, and Seniors. Are you interested in a study group on the subject of Spiritual Aging? Donna Moore and Johanna Munson are starting such a group in the fall.

Using The Inner Work of Age: Shifting from Role to Soul by Connie Zweig, Ph. D. as a guide, we will explore the inner obstacles and embrace the hidden spiritual gifts of aging.

Psychotherapist and bestselling author Connie Zweig uses inner work to uncover and explore our unconscious denial and resistance to aging. "Reclaim your creativity and allow mortality to be a teacher." Woven throughout with wisdom from such prominent elders as Ken Wilber, and Rabbi Rami Shapiro, the text shows ways to embrace a fulfilling late life.

You've filled out your Advance Directive forms, posted your POLST and written your Will, now what do you do? (If you haven't done these vital tasks, contact Johanna at johanna@johannamunson.com!) Sit and wait for the Grim Reaper? Not very UU of you. Obviously, we have to have one last discussion group.

UU Camp in the Pacific Northwest

The Eliot Institute holds four multi-day inter-generational camps each year for members and friends of Unitarian Universalist congregations at the Seabeck Conference Center in the Pacific Northwest.

For three of Eliot's camps, there is a morning program on topics that range from spiritual growth, social justice, environmental issues, and the arts. Programs for youth and children run concurrently with the adult morning program. Afternoons and evenings are filled with traditional camp activities. Our fourth camp, Creative Arts Eliot, features workshops 1860s—including native oral histories, Hudson's Bay Company records, pioneer diaries, and historic newspaper reporting to tell the story of an era of tremendous flux, turmoil, and violence during which a Native American war leader became an advocate for peace and strove to create a successful racial hybrid community.

We will discuss the book (via Zoom) at 1:30 pm on September 13th. For more information contact Alan Miller or Mary Romeo.

Organized to provide opportunities to see and enjoy artful products and demonstrations of the creativity present in our talented and capable congregation, those fairs helped us get to

The information will remain confidential if the person so wishes, but Rev. Zackrie's awareness could help with contact tracing as well as determining what support and possible services could be offered by Pastoral Care Team members and perhaps the larger Cedars UU community as well.

Cedars Creativity Fair 2022

Creatively reaching back a few (dozen) years, here's Donna Moore marching in a Winslow Independence Day parade as part of a memorable Women's Briefcase Drill Team.

safety protocols were implemented, it was soon clear that the Cedars Teams had lost participants and there were not enough people to handle setup duties.

Because setup is still necessary, we have eliminated or simplified some of the things we do and created new Task Teams responsible for Setup Leadership, Worship Setup, and Hospitality/Greeting. Each Task Team has a leader and ideally 4-5 members made up of people attending the in-person services. The leader schedules the rotation of duties.

If you have any questions or would like to volunteer for one of the Task Teams, please contact Sally Wilson, setup coordinator.
