The Poet's Memoir

Sunday April 2nd
10:00 a.m.
In-Person service in Webster Hall

Rev. Zackrie Vinczen
Gregory Cook, Worship Associate

Understanding a poet's life often provides us insight into understanding their poetry. In this service we will consider the role of the memoir as a tool of artistic interpretation.

Easter

Sunday April 9th
10:00 a.m.
In-Person service in Webster Hall

Rev. Zackrie Vinczen
Johanna Munson, Worship Associate

The story of Easter is one of betrayal and hope, sacrifice and redemption, but is the story we all know the whole story?

This Easter we will consider an additional account provided by the betrayer himself: Judas Iscariot.

Join us as we seek to understand and answer the question...was it really about the silver?

Listening to your feedback on our Mission

In case you missed last week's summary, or would just like a second reading, here

Our Congregational Mission

*Worship with open hearts
Nurture a learning spirit
Serve justice with compassion
Love without judgment*

again is that summary of this month's very productive exploration of how we might more effectively grow into our mission statement. The discussions were engaging, and of course we welcome further thoughts and feedback. Here is a sample of what we've heard so far:

Worship with Open Hearts: Lots of appreciation for how we have adapted Worship during and after the Pandemic, including how Archer injected some energy during the Time for All Ages. Looking forward to hearing a variety of perspectives, both UU and outside the UUniverse. Would love to hear more people from our congregation leading a session on Sunday mornings.

Nurture a Learning Spirit: Strong support for learning programs for adults and children. People want to step up to make more programs available, including Our Whole Lives, general children's programming, adult discussion groups focused on movies, books or other topics of interest. The parents group is actively planning things for children and would love any support from individuals and the congregation at large.

Serve Justice with Compassion: People are excited about our focus on Social Justice. Some ideas to explore are to have periodic Sunday Services focused on Social Justice issues; look for causes that have personal impact; focus on women in need; and possibly inviting recipients of our monthly special collection to come speak on Sunday.

Love without Judgment: People were very interested in exploring how we can be more aware of the intersection of Love and Judgment. This is perhaps something we can aspire to, though it is challenging. As a value, it can be important to approach people with an open mind and love in our hearts, even as we discern how to interact with them based on their attitudes and behaviors. One of the more challenging things to achieve in life.

The Board of Trustees will receive notes on the discussions and any additional feedback. You can always send me your thoughts at Philip.jeff@gmail.com.

Safe Gatherings at Cedars

Continued Caution

Spread of viruses (COVID, Respiratory Syncytial virus and the flu) surged late in 2022, but didn't grow to the levels some health professionals predicted. Those rates appear to be coming back down. As we watch the health data, Cedars UU Church will continue to urge caution in the weeks ahead.

Cedars encourages people to wear masks for indoor, in person gatherings. And remember to get your annual flu vaccine and COVID

Leading a Service

Are you looking for a chance to share your unique perspectives with the rest of the congregation? Do you have a passion for puns? Do you know how to keep a crowd on the edge of their seats? Or have you just always wanted to speak in front of a captive audience? If so, we want to hear from you!

Cedars is looking for speakers of all backgrounds, experiences, and identities to share their wisdom by leading a Sunday service.

Leading a service is a great way to connect with your fellow community members, grow your own spiritual practice, and contribute to the ongoing conversation about the values and principles that guide our church.

Whether you have experience in public speaking or have always wanted to try your hand at preaching, you are invited to give it a try and share your wisdom and unique perspective.

Currently, we are still looking to fill the following dates:

04/16/2023, 04/30/2023, 05/28/2023, 06/18/2023, 06/25/2023

If this interests you, please get in touch with Rev. Zackrie.

Musical Notes

Much hard work and dedication goes into providing music for our Sunday services. And each week we are grateful for those willing to

Building Communities of Love

How do we go beyond welcome to build compassionate, authentic, and equitable communities? In this Skinner House book released last year, editor Linnea Nelson and contributors dream of a future Unitarian Universalism that upholds abundant love and universal justice within every community.

Examining both the joys of community and the responsibilities we have to one another, Beyond Welcome provides clarity about current structures and behaviors that create barriers to equity in our faith communities as a passageway to building foundational structures of love and liberation.

Through personal and collective reflections, these heartfelt essays tell stories of how it feels to be in Beloved Community while prompting readers to imagine what it will take to get us there. The lived experiences of these hopeful Unitarian Universalists—ministers, religious professionals, and laypeople alike—illuminate the relevancy of liberation in each and every one of our communities.

The book is available through the InSpirit UU Book and Gift Shop.

Time for All Ages Volunteers

Are you looking for new ways to get involved, have fun, and make meaning? Is it time to spice up your church life? If so, then we have an opportunity for you.

The Worship Team is looking for people willing to lead games, tell jokes, and share stories during the Time for All Ages portion of our Sunday services. Whether you're a long time storyteller seeking an audience or brand new to public speaking, we have a place for you.

So, if you're ready to add a little humor and fun to our Sunday mornings, please reach out to Rev. Zackrie, and let him know that you're ready to make us laugh and create meaning. He can take it from there and help find a home for your talents.

Our identity as a congregational community is strengthened by the activities and gatherings we enjoy together, as well as by the ways we can find to know each other better.

In past years we organized occasional Creativity Fairs to share individual interests and capabilities following Webster Hall services, and in response to the more recent pandemic we have shifted to on-line or virtual versions of those fairs.

Organized to provide opportunities to see and enjoy artful products and demonstrations of the creativity present in our talented and capable congregation, those fairs helped us get to know and appreciate each other.

Continuing that sharing of individual interests and creativity, please join the fun and enjoy the growing show using the link below! If you have something to share, send a photo and description to office@cedarsuuchurch.org.

Pastoral Care

The Pastoral Care team is looking for people who can help with meals or rides for people needing an extra boost. Please take time to fill out the Pastoral Care Volunteer Interest Form. We are thankful to the many who have stepped up in the past few months to help.

In addition, if you find yourself in need of additional support or assistance we encourage you to take a moment to fill out the Pastoral Care Request Form to let our Pastoral Care team know how we can be of support.

For more information about this effort please contact Rev. Zackrie or send an email to pastoralcare@cedarsuuchurch.org.

Super Supper Sign-Ups

Cedars, in partnership with Kol Shalom, offers Super Supper dinners on the last Tuesday of each month.

Super suppers are a free meal for those in need provided by members of the Bainbridge Island Interfaith Council.

We now have a regular sign-up for you to use each month so that all in our congregation have a chance to participate. Please consider signing up for one or more slots here.
