Upcoming Services

Religious Absurdity

Sunday May 7th
10:00 a.m.
In-Person service in Webster Hall

Rev. Zackrie Vinczen
Mike Cox, Worship Associate

In 2005, 24 year old Bobby Henderson wrote a satirical letter to the Kansas State Board of Education professing a belief in a supreme being known as the Flying Spaghetti Monster. Since then, what started as a joke has become an organized religion around the world. In this service we will review the history of the Pastafarian religion and the lessons offered on humor and the separation of church and state.

Mother's Day

Sunday May 14th
10:00 a.m.
In-Person service in Webster Hall

Rev. Zackrie Vinczen
Jenny Weaver, Worship Associate

In 1870 Julia Ward Howe wrote a proclamation titled "Appeal to Womanhood Throughout the World." Today this text is better known by the title "The Mother's Day Proclamation."

In this service we will reflect on this text and consider what still rings true to us today.

Seven Principles of Unitarian Universalism

Our faith tradition is explicitly a non-creedal

*Worship with open hearts
Nurture a learning spirit
Serve justice with compassion
Love without judgment*

religion, meaning that you do not have to accept one truth to be a UU.

The Association of Congregations did decide in 1961, and again in 1987, that it benefited all of us to be able to articulate some common values, so that we could at a minimum discuss what brings most UU's together. And so the Principles of Unitarian Universalism were created. In 1961 those Principles were crafted to help the merger of Unitarians and Universalists declare shared values. In 1987, they were re-written with an additional 7th Principle which recognized the interdependent web of existence.

For many of us, the Seven Principles have been a key element that helps us identify, describe, and strive for a set of values. In the wake of the rise of the BLM movement and an awareness of the injustices of racial inequality, some were calling for the addition of an eighth principle to address racial justice.

In response, a Study Commission tasked with reviewing the basis for the Seven Principles (Article II of the UUA Bylaws) has issued a report and recommendation for a change. That recommendation will be presented for a vote by congregations at this year's General Assembly. The vote will determine if the proposed changes will be further discussed and refined, leading to a final vote to adopt them in 2024.

What are these changes? As with any significant decision affecting Unitarian Universalism, I suggest each of us learn about the history and proposed changes with an open mind. Here are some ways you can learn more:

- Attend a discussion led by Rev. Zackrie Vinczen and Cedars Member Rev. Barry Andrews on May 7th after the Worship Service.

Caution: Suspicious Emails

Please remember to be vigilant with emails that seem suspicious. This could mean that the tone of the email is off, there are strange grammatical errors, the request in the email is unusual, or the sender's email address looks incorrect.

When you aren't sure if they're who they say they are, try comparing their email address with the one you have on file or contact the person via another form of communication to confirm that they sent the email.

If something seems off, it's best to be cautious!

Children's Faith Formation Needs You

An enthusiastic group of parents has begun planning children's programming for April 23, May 7 & 21, June 4 & 11. The parents will be leading the program activities in the Island School Library on those Sunday mornings and could use the help of other adults while they are leading the program.

Seeing an active children's Faith Formation effort getting off the ground again is exhilarating. To volunteer your assistance, please email Jeff Philip at president@cedarsuuchurch.org.

Leading a Service

Are you looking for a chance to share your unique perspectives with the rest of the congregation? Do you have a passion for puns? Do you know how to keep a crowd on the edge of their seats? Or have you just always wanted to speak in front of a captive

These changes would do away with the Statement of Principles and the Sources, and replace them with new language. The impact of this proposal would be far reaching and worth us taking time to reflect on together.

That is why, on May 7th following the Sunday service Rev. Barry Andrews & Rev. Zackrie Vinczen will be leading a discussion on this topic in The Island School Library. Our hope is to explore this issue together and get a sense of where Cedars falls on this issue as a community.

At our June 11th Congregational meeting, the Board plans to include an advisory vote on this issue on our ballots as a way of clarifying Cedars' stance on this issue, and inform our General Assembly delegates how to represent our congregation.

Below are some resources to help familiarize yourself with the issue prior to the conversation.

We hope many of you will join as we explore this important topic together.

May 21st Special Collection: Friends of the Farm

Cedars holds a Special Collection monthly for community outreach to educate our congregation about the work of various non-profit organizations that reflect our values and to channel our generosity in support of them.

On May 21st, the Social Justice Committee has chosen to collect money for the Friends of the Farm (FOF). They are an organization located on Bainbridge Island whose mission is to ensure the future of local farming and build a healthier community through a resilient and equitable food ecosystem. Several people from the organization will be attending the May 21st service to discuss the work they are doing on Bainbridge Island.

If you would like to receive a tax deduction for your donation, please write a check payable to Cedars UU Church with Friends of the Farm in the memo to place in the offering basket on May 21st or send it to the Cedars Church Office by May 30th.

Whether you have experience in public speaking or have always wanted to try your hand at preaching, you are invited to give it a try and share your wisdom and unique perspective.

Are you looking for new ways to get involved, have fun, and make meaning? Is it time to spice up your church life? If so, then we have an opportunity for you.

The Worship Team is looking for people willing to lead games, tell jokes, and share stories during the Time for All Ages portion of our Sunday services. Whether you're a long time storyteller seeking an audience or brand new to public speaking, we have a place for you.

So, if you're ready to add a little humor and fun to our Sunday mornings, please reach out to Rev. Zackrie, and let him know that you're ready to make us laugh and create meaning.

Safe Gatherings at Cedars

Caution Recommended

Based on the recent decision to no longer require masking in health care facilities in Washington State, the Board of Trustees has decided that Cedars will no longer ask people to mask up while singing at Sunday Services.

The new policy will be effective on May 7th. We will always honor people's individual choice to wear a mask at any time.

As we watch the health data, Cedars UU Church will continue to urge caution in the weeks ahead.

Evans Reading Group

Regaining focus in post-pandemic daylight, the Evans Reading Group is pleased to invite your participation as we return to our Cedars practice of reading and discussing books that can intrigue and might enlighten us in seeking "Salvation by Bibliography" as our late friend Marvin Evans used to say.

Our current selection, proposed by Mary Romeo, is Humanly Possible, a sweeping new study by Sarah Bakewell that takes readers on a grand intellectual adventure bringing extraordinary humanists together across history. Some of them sought to promote scientific and rationalist ideas, others put more emphasis on moral living, and still others were concerned with the cultural and literary studies known as "the humanities." The author explores what brings all these aspects of humanism together, and why it has such enduring power, despite opposition from fanatics, mystics, and tyrants.

We will tentatively begin a several-session discussion of the book (perhaps via Zoom) at 1:30 p.m. on Tuesday, June 6th. For more information contact Alan Miller or Mary Romeo.

Pastoral Care

The Pastoral Care team is looking for people who can help with meals or rides for people needing an extra boost. Please take time to fill out the Pastoral Care Volunteer Interest Form. We are thankful to the many who have stepped up in the past few months to help.

In addition, if you find yourself in need of additional support or assistance we encourage you to take a moment to fill out the Pastoral Care Request Form to let our Pastoral Care team know how we can be of support.

For more information about this effort please contact Rev. Zackrie or send an email to pastoralcare@cedarsuuchurch.org.

Meaningful Movie Viewing Opportunity

Port Townsend's Quimper UU Fellowship is sharing an online viewing of Inhospitable, its Meaningful Movie selection, on Monday May 8 at 6:30 p.m., with a community discussion following.

The film follows the story of patients and activists as they band together in an effort to fight UPMC, a multi-billion dollar nonprofit hospital behemoth in western Pennsylvania. In its quest for market domination, UPMC was planning to make vital care unaffordable for hundreds of thousands of vulnerable patients. These patients were taxpayers who had been subsidizing this supposedly nonprofit institution whose main mission as a charity was to serve the community.

This illuminating documentary tells the inspiring story of these brave patients and activists who, faced with life-or-death consequences, fight to win the battle for their health — and their community.

Building Communities of Love

How do we go beyond welcome to build compassionate, authentic,

Suquamish Tribe. For the first time since 2019, the Canoe Journey & Chief Seattle Days will be open to the public. These events will take place on the following dates:

Canoe Journey: Friday July 28th-Sunday July 30th

Chief Seattle Days: Friday August 18th-Sunday August 20th

Reopening these events suggests a significant public presence and the need for volunteer support. Cedars volunteers have participated with such assistance in the past, providing appreciated support while gaining rewarding insight into the tribe's presence and culture.

Endangered Species Day May 19th

Every year on the third Friday in May, thousands of people around the world participate in Endangered Species Day by celebrating, learning about, and taking action to protect threatened and endangered species.

Along with the 18th annual Endangered Species Day, 2023 also marks the 50th Anniversary of the Endangered Species Act (ESA), a landmark piece of legislation that institutionalized our national commitment to the conservation of fish, plants and wildlife and the places they call home.

On Endangered Species Day 2023, wildlife refuges, gardens, schools, libraries, museums, community groups, and individuals will hold special programs or events.

Cedars member Sandy Spears invites you to join her from 4pm to 6pm at the intersection of Winslow Way and 305 on May 19th in a Banner Action for Endangered Species Day. The Action organizer has teams in 12 PNW cities banner for endangered salmon and orca that day. More information is available here.

Sandy can be reached at Sandy.Spears@att.net for additional information and to participate.

Cedars Creativity Fair 2023

See What Others Have Been Doing

Our identity as a congregational community is strengthened by the activities and gatherings we enjoy together, as well as by the ways we can find to know each other better.

In past years we organized occasional Creativity Fairs to share individual interests and equitable communities? In this Skinner House book released last year, editor Linnea Nelson and contributors dream of a future Unitarian Universalism that upholds abundant love and universal justice within every community.

Examining both the joys of community and the responsibilities we have to one another, Beyond Welcome provides clarity about current structures and behaviors that create barriers to equity in our faith communities as a passageway to building foundational structures of love and liberation.

Through personal and collective reflections, these heartfelt essays tell stories of how it feels to be in Beloved Community while prompting readers to imagine what it will take to get us there. The lived experiences of these hopeful Unitarian Universalists—ministers, religious professionals, and laypeople alike—illuminate the relevancy of liberation in each and every one of our communities.

The book is available through the InSpirit UU Book and Gift Shop.

Super Supper Sign-Ups

Cedars, in partnership with Kol Shalom, offers Super Supper dinners on the last Tuesday of each month.

Super suppers are a free meal for those in and capabilities following Webster Hall services, and in response to the more recent pandemic we have shifted to on-line or virtual versions of those fairs.

Organized to provide opportunities to see and enjoy artful products and demonstrations of the creativity present in our talented and capable congregation, those fairs helped us get to know and appreciate each other.

Continuing that sharing of individual interests and creativity, please join the fun and enjoy the growing show using the link below! If you have something to share, send a photo and description to office@cedarsuuchurch.org.
