The Science of Giving: Think Globally, Act Locally?

Sunday July 30th
10:00 a.m.
In-Person Service in Webster Hall

Earle Canfield, Guest Speaker
Herb Hethcote, Worship Associate

"Think Globally: Act Locally" is a favorite rallying proclamation of many liberals, humanists, and UUs. But what does it mean? What's wrong with "thinking locally" or "acting globally," instead?

Having thought for many years about how to best help, I offer my ANSWER as to how we should be Giving. And there is so much that we can also gain from our giving!

When done right, helping others helps us in return!

Coast Salish Canoes Assemble

Coast Salish Canoe Journey

Ocean-going canoes are scheduled to land at the Charles Lawrence boat ramp in Suquamish next weekend, as the Suquamish Tribe welcomes other tribes of the Coast Salish for the 30th anniversary of the traditional Canoe Journey.

In these culturally significant journeys and gatherings, tribes visit other tribes along the way to rest, share a meal, and take part in ceremonial celebrations. The ceremonies begin with paddlers asking permission from hosting tribes to come ashore, and once ashore the tribes share meals, prayers, music, and dances.

The Suquamish will be hosting visiting paddlers for two nights of celebration before joining them on the remainder of the journey which will end this year on the grounds of the Lummi Tribe in Bellingham.

Additionally, for the first time since 2019, the Canoe Journey and next month's Chief Seattle Days will be open to the public.

Reopening these events suggests a significant public presence and the need for volunteer support. Cedars volunteers have participated with such assistance in the past, providing appreciated support while gaining rewarding insight into the tribe's presence and culture

Rev. Zackrie Vinczen has agreed to help by coordinating volunteers for both events. Currently, it is anticipated that people will be needed to fill the following roles:

- Parking Attendant
- Meal Assistance
- Trash & Recycling Attendant
- Info Booth Attendant
- First-aid Support

If you are available and willing to help out, please contact Zackrie by email at: minister@cedarsuuchurch.org

Safe Gatherings at Cedars

Caution Recommended

Based on the recent decision to no longer require masking in health care facilities in Washington State, the Board of Trustees has decided that Cedars will no longer ask people to mask up while singing at Sunday Services.

As we watch the health data, Cedars UU Church will continue to urge caution in the weeks ahead.

We will always honor people's individual choice to wear a mask at any time.

Evans Reading Group

Regaining focus in post-pandemic daylight, the Evans Reading Group is pleased to invite your participation as we return to our Cedars practice of reading and discussing books that can intrigue and might enlighten us in seeking "Salvation by Bibliography" as our late friend Marvin Evans used to say.

Our current selection, proposed by Mary Romeo, is Humanly Possible, a sweeping new study by Sarah Bakewell that takes readers on a grand adventure bringing extraordinary humanists together across history.

We will finish our Zoom discussion of this book on July 25th at this link.

All are welcome to join us. For more information contact Alan Miller or Mary Romeo.

to public speaking, we have a place for you.

Kitsap 2023 Pride Festival

Kitsap Pride is Kitsap

In past years we organized occasional Creativity Fairs to share individual interests and capabilities following Webster Hall services, and in response to the more recent pandemic we have shifted to on-line or virtual versions of those fairs.

Organized to provide opportunities to see and enjoy artful products and demonstrations of the creativity present in our talented and capable congregation, those fairs helped us get to know and appreciate each other.

Continuing that sharing of individual interests and creativity, please join the fun and enjoy the growing show using the link below! If you have something to share, send a photo and description to office@cedarsuuchurch.org.

Cedars Creativity Fair 2023

This beautiful summer evening view of Puget Sound and Eagle Harbor with a Seattle ferry was shared recently by Cedars friend and drone photographer John McKenzie.

County's premier LGBTQ+ Pride event and is scheduled to take place on Saturday, July 22nd, from 2:00 to 9:00 pm at the Bremerton Fairgrounds.

It is a free, family-friendly event. The main stage will feature live music, DJ, and drag performances. Kitsap Pride will host a beer garden and a Pride store for logo merchandise.

They are looking for volunteers to help with the event. To register to help and for more information on the event use this link.

Food4Kids

Monday, August 7th
9:00-11:30 a.m.

Kingston Cares provides and delivers nutritious, kid-friendly meals to over 120 local students who lack access to other food programs during school breaks. Last year they provided 11,000 meals!

It takes a small army to set-up, pack, clean-up and recycle each Monday morning when schools aren't in session. We have committed to creating a team of 10 people to prepare the food packs in Kingston on this one Monday in August. This is a great opportunity for us to reach out to North Kitsap and enjoy a morning volunteering together. Best of all: families are welcome!

Please contact Patricia Erdmann to sign up for our CEDARS Team. 360 953-4503 or pperdmann@gmail.com
