Listening to Our Body's Wisdom- Creating Justice Within

Sunday March 17th
10:00 a.m.
In-Person Service in Webster Hall

Kathryn Lafond, Guest Speaker
Johanna Munson, Worship Associate

It is true that what we do to ourselves, we generally do to others. If we treat our own bodies as machines, we will likely treat the world around us in a similar fashion. However, if we are going to bring healing to this Earth and all her inhabitants, we better start with ourselves.

What if we treat our bodies as sacred and wise vessels for our soul's journey; honoring the macro/micro life within that allows us to exist? The information we learn to receive by 'listening' could be transformative.

Temporary Lodging Needed

Long time Cedars members Keri Schmit and Rick Blythe are returning to the US in May following two years living in Ecuador. Because they are renting out their home on Bainbridge, they are in need of a place to stay while visiting the Bainbridge area sometime during June or July. If you might have a place for them and their dog Nutmeg to stay for 1-4 weeks in June or July, please email Keri at schmitkeri@gmail.com.

Musical Notes

Much hard work and dedication goes into providing music for our Sunday services. And each week we are grateful for those willing to make music and lead us all in song.

This week we offer special thanks to Audrey Blair for music accompaniment.

UUA Bylaws. That Article outlines some of the core elements of the Unitarian Universalist movement in the United States (Canada and other countries have their own guidance). In June we will vote on whether to change them.

We had an in-person Cedars Center discussion of the proposed changes last week and plan to continue the conversation in a Zoom session later in the month. For now, here are links to relevant information:

Museum Field Trip

On Saturday, March 23rd, the Cedars Social Justice Committee is planning a field trip to the Washington State History Museum in Tacoma to experience the Solidarity Now! 1968 Poor People's Campaign exhibit.

"This traveling exhibition from the Smithsonian illuminates the often-overlooked history of the multicultural movement to confront poverty that redefined social justice and activism in America."

The admission cost for the Museum is as follows:

- $14 general
- $11 (65+)
- $11 (6-18)

Cedars is able to cover the admission if it is a barrier to participation.

We plan to leave North Kitsap the morning of March 23rd and make our way to the museum. Following the exhibit, we will get lunch nearby before heading back home.

Carpools are being organized for those who want to attend. Please use the link below to register or contact Rev. Zackrie for more information.

During each of these gatherings, you will be offered prompts that nourish your creative spirit, ignite your inspiration, and invite you into questioning. Moreover, these gatherings will also provide a space for deep reflection, contemplation, and sharing. Whether you choose to attend a single session or embark on the full journey, each gathering will offer the promise of a meaningful exploration of self and soul.

So mark your calendar for the following dates from 5-6 p.m.:

- March 13th: Allowing Emptiness
- April 10th: Responding to Art
- May 8th: Encounters in the Wild
- June 12th: TBD

Evans Reading Group

Organized 16 years ago as the Spirituality Book

Heidi Parkington-Thal says "I've recently knit two National Parks hats, this one is the Mount Rainier hat:

Group, this Cedars reading group assumed a new identity as the Evans Reading Group in 2020 to honor the Rev. Marvin Evans after his passing.

In our time together, the group has read and discussed more than 60 books selected to intrigue and hopefully enlighten us in seeking "Salvation by Bibliography" as our late friend Marvin used to say, and we are pleased to invite your participation with us in our ongoing practice.

Our current selection is Becoming Wild: How Animal Cultures Raise Families, Create Beauty, and Achieve Peace, by Carl Safina.

A NEW YORK TIMES NOTABLE BOOK OF 2020:

"Dr. Safina is a terrific writer, majestic and puckish in equal measure, with a contagious enthusiasm... He draws out haunting resonances between animal lives and our own... This revelatory work sheds as much light on what it means to be human as it does on the nature of other species ..."
