This Week At Cedars

Sunday Service, June 29
10:00 am

How do we respond when chaos happens?

Rev. Barbara Gilday, Guest Minister
Mike Cox, Worship Associate

When life catches us off guard, how do we respond - in families, in communities, in our country? What can we learn from deaths in two families, from a city devastated by earthquakes, and from our current political environment? How can communication, planning and community action make a difference in our states of mind and long-term outcomes? How we live our principles makes all the difference in our peace of mind and how our lives move from this point on.

Rev. Barbara Gilday came to professional ministry in mid-life, but her life has been full of inquiry, diversity, social justice, connecting and sharing with others: Teaching in Ghana, Hosting Japanese Exchange Programs, developing peer tutoring programs, hosting a Ukrainian refugee, to name a few. Currently, she is exploring in new and deeper ways, how we continue to find joy in, and give value to life as our capacities change. Barbara is the grateful member of a loving, blended family, and a new mom to a young rescue dog, Marley, who keeps her physically active.

Childcare will be offered during this service Click HERE for details.

Upcoming Service

Sunday Service, July 6
10:00 am

The Spirituality of Albert Einstein

Rev. Margo Rinehart, Cedars Minister
Johanna Munson, Worship Associate

This service explores the religious and spiritual beliefs of Albert Einstein and his beliefs about the relationship between science and religion. In Einstein's own words, "I am not an atheist...I believe in Spinoza's God who reveals himself in the orderly harmony of what exists, not in a God who concerns himself with the fates and actions of human beings."

Reverend Margo Rinehart is our minister at Cedars UU Congregation. She has been a Kitsap County resident for over 20 years before recently finishing a ministry in Bozeman, Montana, and is looking forward to serving us.

Gretchen Yanover Playing at Cedars

This Sunday, June 29, Gretchen Yanover, will once again fill our sanctuary space with the gorgeous sounds of her cello playing. If you've not heard Gretchen play live before, don't miss the chance to hear her playing some very special holiday music!

You can find more information about Gretchen HERE.

June Special Collection: Friends of the Farms

Cedars holds a Special Collection monthly for community outreach to educate our congregation about the work of various non-profit organizations that reflect our values and to channel our generosity in support of them. For June, we will be collecting funds to support the Friends of the Farms Shared Harvest Initiative. The Shared Harvest purchases fresh, locally grown produce, eggs, and meat from 10 local family-owned farmers and delivers it directly to Helpline House's food bank. You can find more information HERE.

CEDARS presents: STOCKtheSHELVES!

This month our Social Action Committee is pleased to introduce a new way to help people in our community. At the start of each month, we'll provide a list of the most needed shelf-stable items for local food banks. At the last Sunday Service of that month (starting this Sunday, June 29), we'll collect donations and deliver them to Helpline or Fishline on alternating months. HERE is Helpline's list of what's most needed for June's STOCKtheSHELVES. Unable to attend Sunday Service? We will also have a donation box at Cedars Center for your convenience.

A Message from Rev. Margo

This month Naomi Gary and Patricia Erdmann are starting us off with an ongoing food drive through Cedars UUC. BINK-IFC is considering returning to monthly food drives outside of Town and County and Safeway. Over the next weeks and months, look for ways you can help. Non-perishable food, hygiene supplies and checks are all welcome!

*In the end it won't matter how much we have, but how generously we have given.
It won't matter how much we know, but rather how well we live.
And it won't matter how much we believe, but how deeply we love. Rev. John Morgan*

Community Events

Mortal-i-tea with Johanna Munson and the EdgeWalking Collective

Death happens. Let's talk about it! Mortal-i-tea is a space for coming together with your fellow mortals to discuss our shared fate and to enjoy tea and snacks while we're at it. This group will facilitate open, informal conversations about death and dying; it is not intended to provide grief counseling. No agenda, no religion. The first Mortal-i-tea will be offered on Tuesday, July 8, from 6:30 - 8:00 pm. You can sign up HERE.

Ongoing Programs

Cedars Book Group

Our next book to be discussed via Zoom, on Wednesday, August 13, at 1:30 pm, will be "Homewaters, a Human & Natural History of Puget Sound", by David B Williams. It covers glaciers and volcanoes carving up Puget Sound, examines the history of early Native communities, and then colonial settlements. Then Keystone species--salmon, orca, rockfish, herring, kelp, and how we can protect them." Please contact Mary Romeo with any questions. You can find more information HERE.

Rev. Margo Drop-in Hours!

Rev. Margo will have drop-in office hours on Tuesdays from 11:00 am to 1:00 pm from June 10 through July 1. Drop by and say hello to Reverend Margo, ask questions, or brainstorm ideas. Feel free to bring a sack lunch!

Super Supper and Community Kitchen Sign-Ups

Cedars, in partnership with Kol Shalom as members of the Bainbridge Island Interfaith Council, offers Super Supper dinners on the last Tuesday of each month. We have a regular sign-up for you to use each month to provide various dishes and to assist with setup, serving, and cleanup, so that all in our congregation have a chance to participate. You can find the sign-up for Super Suppers HERE.

Cedars is also committed to leading the preparation and serving of a free meal to anyone in the community every other month through the Suquamish Community Kitchen. These meals require many helping hands to prepare, serve, and clean up. Please consider signing up HERE for one of the team member roles on the upcoming date, Wednesday, July 23.
