This Week At Cedars

Sunday Service, August 3
10:00 am

Favorite Hymns Service

Reverend Margo Rinehart, Cedars Minister
Gregory Cook, Worship Associate

We will sing hymns nominated as favorites by members of the congregation.

Reverend Margo Rinehart is our minister at Cedars UU Congregation. She has been a Kitsap County resident for over 20 years before recently finishing a ministry in Bozeman, Montana.

Upcoming Service

Sunday Service, August 10
10:00 am

The Threshold

Rev. Kate Lore, Guest Minister
Johanna Munson, Worship Associate

We are living in the pause between stories. The familiar expectations no longer hold. The new ones are not yet formed. This is the threshold: not a place of clarity, but of courage.

Kate Lore is a recently retired UU minister who currently lives in Battle Ground, WA. Prior to that, she served as the Senior Minister at the Port Townsend congregation and as the Social Justice Minister of First Unitarian Church of Portland, OR.

News and Announcements

Upcoming Adult Programs This Fall! Mark your Calendars!

Starting Point is a unique program designed to provide newcomers and long-timers with the opportunity to experience Unitarian Universalism rather than just hearing about it. It focuses on personal spiritual journeys and the historical journey of Unitarian Universalism and UU CDC as well as the shared journey that we travel together, which includes listening to one's deepest self, opening to life's gifts, and serving needs greater than our own. Four sessions will be held every other Sunday after the service on Oct 5, 19, Nov 2, 16. Stay tuned for further details and signups in September!

Responding to the Anti-Trans Movement, A Course for Unitarian Universalists This brief course is designed to offer you an introduction to gender diversity and trans identity, help you understand the current political attack on trans people and the misinformation that is part of that attack, and train you in how to create safety and belonging for trans people in UU congregations in this moment. Three sessions will be held on three Tuesday evenings Sep 30, Oct 7 & 14. Stay tuned for further details and signups in September!

Session 1: Trans 101

Session 2: What You Need to Know About the Anti-Trans Movement

Session 3: How to Ensure Your Congregation Is Truly Trans Welcoming

* We will also be bringing back Spiritual Odyssey Potlucks on the last Saturday of each month starting on September 27!

Wednesday Writing Group Inspired by Suleika Jaouad's The Book ofAlchemy: A Creative Practice for an Inspired Life, we are interested in developing our writing practice by making journaling an everyday routine in our lives. Care to join us? Amy Johnson has been developing her writing practice for some time, and Patricia Erdmann is keen to get started. The Book of Alchemy is filled with a wide variety of prompts and encouragement for writing daily. At the same time, it does not insist on any specific topics or approaches to writing OR to other creative expressions that appeal to you.

We plan to meet at the Cedars Center at 10 am every other Wednesday, starting on Wednesday, September 10. Let us know if you would like to join us!

SAC

Cedars Social Action Committee (SAC) appreciates your interest and involvement.

The Social Action Committee is interested in your ideas on the direction we should take at Cedars related to our Social Action programs. We would appreciate it if you could take a moment to complete the survey by clicking the link below, which will help us evaluate how we move forward over the next year.

We meet once/month via Zoom and gladly welcome all ideas for topics to study, programs to support, and activities to participate in. We need more members and hope you will join our committee!

We welcome your attendance at our first annual retreat on Saturday, September 6, from 10 AM to 1 PM, where we will begin planning Cedars Social Action efforts for the year ahead. Please RSVP to Naomi Gary at naomiwwwgary@gmail.com

CEDARS Presents: STOCKtheSHELVES!

Thanks to everyone who contributed last Sunday to our July STOCKtheSHELVES for Fishline. Our contributions weighed 73 pounds of food!

This month, our contributions will go to Helpline House. If you would like to help, we welcome both food donations and checks. Both can be dropped off at Sunday Service, or at Cedars office on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9 am to 2 pm. Here is a list of what's most needed at Helpline House for August: baking supplies like flour, sugar, cake mixes, canned milk, spices, baking powder/soda.

Any questions? Ask Naomi Gary or Patricia Erdmann.

Community Events

Mortal-i-tea with Johanna Munson and the EdgeWalking Collective

Death happens. Let's talk about it! Mortal-i-tea is a space for coming together with your fellow mortals to discuss our shared fate and to enjoy tea and snacks while we're at it. This group will facilitate open, informal conversations about death and dying; it is not intended to provide grief counseling. No agenda, no religion. The first Mortal-i-tea will be offered on Tuesday, August 12, from 6:30 - 8:00 pm. You can sign up HERE.

Ongoing Programs

Cedars Book Group

Our next book to be discussed via Zoom, on Wednesday, August 13, at 1:30 pm, will be "Homewaters", a Human & Natural History of Puget Sound, by David B Williams. It covers glaciers and volcanoes carving up Puget Sound, examines the history of early Native communities, and then colonial settlements. It discusses Keystone species--salmon, orca, rockfish, herring, kelp, and how we can protect them." Please contact Mary Romeo with any questions. You can find more information HERE.

Super Supper and Community Kitchen Sign-Ups

Cedars, in partnership with Kol Shalom as members of the Bainbridge Island Interfaith Council, offers Super Supper dinners on the last Tuesday of each month. We have a regular sign-up for you to use each month to provide various dishes and to assist with setup, serving, and cleanup, so that all in our congregation have a chance to participate. You can find the sign-up for Super Suppers HERE.

Cedars is also committed to leading the preparation and serving of a free meal to anyone in the community every other month through the Suquamish Community Kitchen. These meals require many helping hands to prepare, serve, and clean up. Please consider signing up HERE for one of the team member roles on the upcoming date, Wednesday, September 10.
