Soulcraft in the Workplace: Lessons from My Father

Rev. Barry Andrews, Guest Minister
Gregory Cook, Worship Associate

As another Labor Day approaches, America's workers are anxious about their future. Government firings, robots and A.I. replacing humans, paychecks not keeping up with the cost of food and rents, these leave workers feeling unappreciated as well as pessimistic. Let's reflect on the virtues of work and the role it plays in the cultivation of the soul.

Rev. Dr. Barry Andrews is Minister Emeritus of the Unitarian Universalist Congregation at Shelter Rock, Manhasset, New York, and is author of numerous books on Transcendentalism and Transcendentalist authors, most recently "The Gospel According to This Moment: The spiritual Message of Henry David Thoreau," published by the University of Massachusetts Press. Since his retirement in 2011, he and his wife, Linda, have been living on Bainbridge Island.

Sunday, August 31: Special Collection: Super Suppers and Suquamish Community Kitchen

Cedars holds a Special Collection monthly for community outreach to educate our congregation about the work of various non-profit organizations that reflect our values and to channel our generosity in support of them.

For August, we are collecting funds to help defray the costs of our Super Suppers that we offer with Kol Shalom on the last Tuesday of each month at Eagle Harbor Church and for our every other month Community Dinner at the Suquamish United Church of Christ.

If you would like to receive a tax deduction for your donation, please write a check payable to Cedars UU Church with Special Collection in the memo. This can be placed in the offering basket on Sunday, August 31, or sent to the Cedars Church Office by Thursday, September 4.

For more information, contact Mike Cox at Socialaction@cedarsuuchurch.org or Rod Kempkes at President@cedarsuuchurch.org.

Upcoming Adult Programs This Fall! Mark your Calendars!

Starting Point is a unique program designed to provide newcomers and long-timers with the opportunity to experience Unitarian Universalism rather than just hearing about it. It focuses on personal spiritual journeys and the historical journey of Unitarian Universalism and UUCDC as well as the shared journey that we travel together, which includes listening to one's deepest self, opening to life's gifts, and serving needs greater than our own. Four sessions will be held every other Sunday after the service on Oct 5, 19, Nov 2, 16. Stay tuned for further details and signups in September!

Responding to the Anti-Trans Movement, A Course for Unitarian Universalists This brief course is designed to offer you an introduction to gender diversity and trans identity, help you understand the current political attack on trans people and the misinformation that is part of that attack, and train you in how to create safety and belonging for trans people in UU congregations in this moment. Three sessions will be held on three Tuesday evenings Sep 30, Oct 7 & 14. Stay tuned for further details and signups in September!

Session 1: Trans 101

Session 2: What You Need to Know About the Anti-Trans Movement

Session 3: How to Ensure Your Congregation Is Truly Trans Welcoming

Spiritual Odyssey Potlucks return on the last Saturday of each month starting on September 27!

Wednesday Writing Group Inspired by Suleika Jaouad's The Book ofAlchemy: A Creative Practice for an Inspired Life, we are interested in developing our writing practice by making journaling an everyday routine in our lives. Care to join us? Amy Johnson has been developing her writing practice for some time, and Patricia Erdmann is keen to get started. The Book of Alchemy is filled with a wide variety of prompts and encouragement for writing daily. At the same time, it does not insist on any specific topics or approaches to writing OR to other creative expressions that appeal to you.

We plan to meet at the Cedars Center at 10 am every other Wednesday, starting on Wednesday, September 10. Let us know if you would like to join us!

CEDARS Presents: STOCKtheSHELVES!

This month, our contributions will go to Helpline House. If you would like to help, we welcome both food donations and checks. Both can be dropped off at Sunday Service or at Cedars office on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9 am to 2 pm. Here is a list of what's most needed at Helpline House for August: baking supplies like flour, sugar, cake mixes, canned milk, spices, baking powder/soda.

Any questions? Ask Naomi Gary or Patricia Erdmann.

Super Supper and Community Kitchen Sign-Ups

Cedars, in partnership with Kol Shalom as members of the Bainbridge Island Interfaith Council, offers Super Supper dinners on the last Tuesday of each month. We have a regular sign-up for you to use each month to provide various dishes and to assist with setup, serving, and cleanup, so that all in our congregation have a chance to participate. You can find the sign-up for Super Suppers HERE.

Cedars is also committed to leading the preparation and serving of a free meal to anyone in the community every other month through the Suquamish Community Kitchen. These meals require many helping hands to prepare, serve, and clean up. Please consider signing up HERE for one of the team member roles on the upcoming date, Wednesday, September 10.
