This Week At Cedars

Sunday Service, February 8
10:00 am

Let's Dream!: Brunch & Banter

- Where is Cedars headed?
- What kind of community should we become?
- What would make us excited to invest in that future?

The Cedars Board of Trustees will be hosting a short and lively visioning session to gather ideas about how Cedars can better serve families, young adults, and the wider community — and what we as a congregation would like to resource over the next year as we plan for our annual stewardship campaign later this spring. Join us and help imagine what's possible.

This service will be in our Brunch & Banter format, so please bring something "brunchy" to share along with your ideas!

Childcare will not be offered for this Service. Children are welcome to enjoy the brunch with their parents and some activities will be made available for little ones.

The Faiths of Our Founding Fathers

Rev. Margo Reinhart, Minister
Liz Motter, Worship Associate

On this Presidents' Day weekend, we will explore the commitment by many of our Founding Fathers to the separation of church and state and the imperative of protected religious expression. From atheism to theism, let freedom ring!

Reverend Margo Rinehart serves Cedars by welcoming people from diverse theological and religious backgrounds and spiritual beliefs on their journeys to learn from one another, search for truth, and answer the call of love and justice.

Childcare will be offered for this Service. Click HERE for details.

A Message from Reverend Margo

Unitarian Universalism Strongly Represented in Minneapolis

Since ICE Operation Metro Surge began in December, Unitarian Universalists in Minneapolis have been deeply engaged in the work of caring for their neighbors and speaking out against injustice. From joining others in witnessing the minutes and days after the murders of Renee Good and Alex Pretti to coordinating rides to work and school and grocery deliveries for those afraid to go out, UUs are part of protest and resistance. UU clergy represented almost one-third of the faith leaders involved in the MARCH protest.

UU minister and Vice President for Programs & Ministries, Ashley Horan, lives in Minneapolis and informs us of the powerful witness by UUs and others, "Their witness, courageous actions, and spiritual care were a blessing that fortified my city and ignited a groundswell of hope and action across the country. Ripples are still spreading out...Without the skill, strategy, and infrastructure of Unitarian Universalism's Side with Love and the UUA, the MARCH clergy call could not have happened."

Horan wants all Unitarian Universalists to know that the MARCH protests could not have occurred with such speed and organization without the UUA and Side With Love. Horan states, "UUs across the country have provided much-needed prophetic leadership to all people of goodwill over the past several weeks, and the UUA and Side With Love have been an integral component to turning ideas into action...In just six days, here are just a few of the indispensable things Side with Love and the UUA offered:

- Secure registration systems, Zoom hosting, and back-end support to two mass "Know Before You Go" webinars for all denominations,
- Created and served as admins to 30+ secure Signal channels for organizers and participants,
- Vetted registrants to verify identities and legitimacy,
- Created the Solidarity with Minnesota resource guide,
- Led an in-person workshop for congregational organizing,
- Provided an in-person videographer, photographer, and reporter for independent coverage,
- Initiated quick planning of ICE Out! Action hours and phone banks."

Side With Love is funded through the Unitarian Universalist Association and by private contributions. We are likely to hear much more from Side With Love as they continue to be involved in providing national infrastructure for witness and protest. Be assured that if a Metro Surge operation should begin in the Seattle area, Side With Love will be here in partnership with us.

News and Announcements

Unitarian Universalist Association President Rev. Dr. Sofia Betancourt Arrested

Betancourt joined religious leaders near the Capitol grounds earlier in the day to advocate against the passage of the budget that funds the federal agency overseeing ICE and Customs and Border Patrol actions. The gathering comes after thousands of clergy and laypeople, including hundreds of UUs, arrived last week in Minneapolis for The Day of Truth and Freedom, a nonviolent moral action and march calling for the end of ICE operations in Minnesota, where multiple UU clergy were also arrested.

"There is no moral justification for voting for a budget that will put more resources toward the violation and dehumanization of our neighbors," Betancourt said earlier Thursday, according to a UUA statement. "As religious leaders, we have an ethical obligation to show up and say that this will not be done in our name." Read more at this link: UUWorld • Staff Writer • 1/29/2026

NEW! Soul Matters Covenant Group at Cedars

Facilitated by Reverend Margo
Presented on Zoom
Date to be determined HERE

Covenant Groups offer the experience of discovery, solace, hope, and deep sharing through UU spiritual exploration and reflection in the supportive company of others.

The Soul Matters curriculum invites us to experience a theme each month. Practicing Resistance will be the theme for February. Embodying Resilience will be the next. As spiritual analysis without spiritual practice often leaves us unchanged, the exercises in each month's packet invite us to reflect on how the theme shows up in our daily lives.

Each person in the group will receive a monthly packet. Participants are invited to Select one of the 5-7 exercises and one of the dozen questions that speak about their life.

In our Zoom meetings, each session will include:

- Check-in
- Spiritual Exercises Reflection
- "You Question" Reflection
- Closing Words.

If you want to know more about the group before you sign up, contact Reverend Margo at minister@cedarsuuchurch.org.

For the first few sessions, the group will meet on Zoom once a month on Monday or Tuesday evenings. To determine what works best for their schedules, interested participants can choose from the available time slots at the link HERE. As the days get longer, the group might elect to meet in person.

Super Suppers Volunteers: Super Appreciated!

We have a great team serving Super Suppers each month to an appreciative group of Islanders. For many years, we have teamed up with Kol Shalom to provide this much-needed service on the last Tuesday of the month, at Eagle Harbor Congregational Church in Winslow. However, we need more volunteers!!

- to bring side dishes and help with set-up, serving, and cleanup
- or help warm up the premade main dish, set up, and serve.

We provide side dishes or prepare the main dishes on alternating months.

You can sign up HERE for one or more slots, whatever works for you, and your help will be SUPER APPRECIATED! Our next opportunity is February 24.

Suquamish Community Kitchen

Every other month, Cedars takes the lead in preparing and serving a free, nourishing meal for anyone in our community through the Suquamish Community Kitchen. These meals require many helping hands to cook, serve, and clean up. Each role plays a vital part in making the evening run smoothly.

We invite you to sign up HERE to join the team. Your time and energy will make a meaningful difference.
