This Week At Cedars

The Road Taken

Sunday Service, May 31

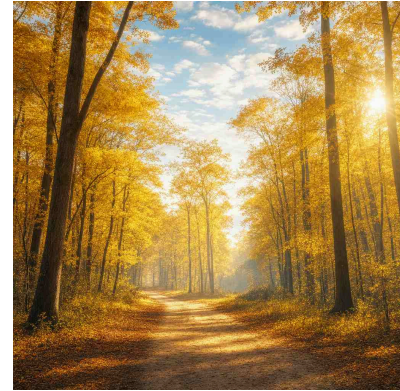

10:00 am

The Island School

Rev. Bruce Bode, Cedars Guest Minister

Nancy Philip, Worship Associate

This is a companion sermon to Rev. Bruce Bode's January 4 sermon titled "The Road Not Taken", which was based on Robert Frost's poem by that title. This follow-up sermon will look at the road we have taken in life, then explore how we go forward from where we are.

NOTE: A print version of the January 4 service can be found at the link here.

Rev. Bruce Bode is retired as senior minister of the Quimper Unitarian Universalist Fellowship in Port Townsend, WA in June 2018, and where he is now Minister Emeritus.

Newer to Cedars Conversation

Sunday, July 5 (ongoing on the first Sunday of each month)

11:15 am–12:00pm (right after Service)

The Island School

If you're newer to Cedars or simply want to learn more about Unitarian Universalism, you're invited to join our Newer to Cedars Conversation. This is an easy, friendly space to ask questions, meet others who are also getting connected, and enjoy light snacks.

These conversations are relaxed, fun, and usually run 30–45 minutes, depending on how many of us gather. We'll be hosting them every first Sunday of the month, so there's always another chance to drop in.

A Message From Reverend Margo

Flourishing Together - Lessons from the Peace Pagoda

Last Saturday five of us from the Cedars UU Church attended the Inauguration of the International Peace Pagoda. The Pagoda is located on land at the Ground Zero Center for Nonviolent Action in Poulsbo and directly adjacent to the Bangor Nuclear Submarine Base. While I was anticipating the beauty of a sacred Buddhist ceremony and fully appreciating the indomitable spirit required to bring this spiritual project to fruition, what stays with me with the greatest intensity is witnessing the deeply meaningful friendships between the Buddhist monks and the members of the Suquamish Tribe. Also, how all of us on that day were enveloped in the eternal heartbeat of creation, which melts away all pretense of separation.

For an hour, monks led the sacred Buddhist ceremony with no translation. While I might have enjoyed hearing the recitation of the sacred sutra texts and bodhisattva vows, translation was not truly necessary to fully live the experience. However, participation of any available senses was essential. The smell of the incense, the visual beauty of flower petals being scattered, adoration through the chiming of sacred cymbals, and the resonance in the body of the beating of the drums. The monks invited us to walk around the pagoda. Most of us stopped to offer incense, people chanted and drummers kept time. Not ordinary time, but the time beating in the heart of eternal creation, of mother earth, and of everything that sustains us.

The heartbeat also demonstrated the bonding between the monks of the Nipponzan Myohoji Buddhist order and the Suquamish tribe. Later in the ceremony they both shared the pain involved in having sacred structures burned, with the U.S. Government burning the Suquamish Long House and arson destroying the first attempt at rebuilding. For the Buddhist Order, the decades long delays in the government approving the permits to build and then arson consuming the first efforts at building the Peace Pagoda. Suquamish Tribal Elder, Barbara Lawrence, shared her deep gratitude for the friendship forged between the Suquamish and the Nipponzan Buddhist order. She explained to us that when someone in the tribe has an abundance of a resource, it is always shared with others. As she came to know Senji Kaneda from the Bainbridge temple and other monks, she observed the Buddhists' sharing their abundance of peace. Buddhist leaders, including Senji Kanaeda, explained how the Peace Pagoda is grounded in the earth and creation wisdom held by the Suquamish and other indigenous people.

May we all learn from this international experience of feeling the heartbeat of the earth and the quest for peace both within and beyond ourselves. May we flourish together by seeking deeper understandings that uphold us all and reach out with open hearts and minds. Namaste'. - Rev. Margo Rinehart

Hold the Date!

Our Annual Congregational Meeting will be on June 7th directly after the service. All Members and Friends are welcome to attend; however only members may vote. We will be voting on the 2026-2027 budget, as well as new Board and Nominating Committee members. It is very important that we have a quorum at this meeting so that the votes are valid. We need at least 30% of our members to attend. Therefore, we want as many members attending as possible.

Upcoming Service

Our Annual Flower Communion

Sunday Service, June 7

10:00 am

The Island School

Rev. Margo Rinehart, Cedars Minister

Liz Motter, Worship Associate

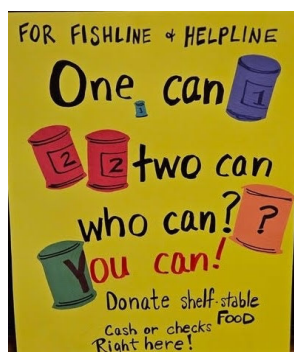

As spring turns into summer, Unitarian Universalists from around the world celebrate Flower Communion, a ceremony of celebration of each person's uniqueness and to honor how we flourish together. Flower Communion was created for his congregation in 1923 by Czech Unitarian minister, Nobeit Capek. Remember to bring a few blossoms to give away as we share in the abundance of life.

Reverend Margo Rinehart serves Cedars by welcoming people from diverse theological and religious backgrounds and spiritual beliefs on their journeys to learn from one another, search for truth and answer the call of love and justice.

Social Action

CEDARS Presents: YOU CAN!

Two weeks ago, Fishline surpassed 800 family visits in a single week. The most ever! Last week, during our hosting of the Suquamish Community Dinner, we saw another record turnout, including more families with children than ever before. The growing need in our wider community is unmistakable.

Nancy Dowey, who volunteers at Helpline House, notes that their shelves remain well-stocked, with limits only on protein items. Fishline, however, is facing a very different reality: many shelves are empty, and limits are in place across every category.

Because the most urgent needs are currently across the bridge, we would like to direct all Cedars food donations to Fishline. Every contribution of cans, boxes, bottles, and more goes straight onto the shelves and is immediately appreciated.

Thank you for giving what you can. Every bit truly helps.

Questions? See Nancy Dowey or Patricia Erdmann or email them: office@cedarsuuchurch.org

Super Suppers Volunteers:

Super Appreciated!

We have a great team serving Super Suppers each month to an appreciative group of Islanders. For many years, we have teamed up with Kol Shalom to provide this much-needed service on the last Tuesday of the month, at Eagle Harbor Congregational Church in Winslow. However, we need more volunteers!

- to bring side dishes and help with set-up, serving, and cleanup
- or help warm up the premade main dish, set up, and serve.

We provide side dishes or prepare the main dishes on alternating months. You can sign up for one or more slots using this link, whatever works for you, and your help will be SUPER APPRECIATED! Our next opportunity is May 28.

For more information, please use this link to email Mike Cox at socialaction@cedarsuuchurch.org.

Suquamish Community Kitchen

Every other month, Cedars takes the lead in preparing and serving a free, nourishing meal for anyone in our community through the Suquamish Community Kitchen. These meals require many helping hands to cook, serve, and clean up. Each role plays a vital part in making the evening run smoothly.

We invite you to sign up to join the team using this link. Your time and energy will make a meaningful difference.

For more information, please email Heidi Parkington-Thal at office@cedarsuuchurch.org using this link.

Cedars T-Shirts Are Here!

We have Cedars T-shirts available for purchase! Each shirt is $20 and made from organic cotton.

Group Meetings

Explore the Major Religions of the World Session 8: Shinto

Sunday, May 31

11:30am–1:00pm (right after Service)

The Island School (bring a bag lunch)

Alan Miller and David Thomas have generously offered to continue exploring the world's great religious traditions through both history and lived experience. Alan is a retired professor of comparative religion, and David is a retired epidemiologist who has traveled the world and experienced many cultures and religious traditions.

Together we'll look at 3 more religions:

- Confucianism - April 26 (reading can be found at this link)
- Daoism - May 17 (reading can be found at this link)
- Shinto - May 31 (reading can be found at this link)

Each session focuses on one tradition and blends:

- ✦ Short readings (about 10 pages)
- ✦ Helpful historical and textual insights (Alan)
- ✦ Observations from world travel (David)
- ✦ Conversation and Q&A

Whether you're seeking a deeper understanding of global faiths, curious about how religion shapes culture, or simply enjoy learning in community, this course offers a thoughtful and engaging doorway in. All are welcome — no prior knowledge required!

For more information, please email Alan Miller at office@cedarsuuchurch.org using this link.

Cedars Women's Covenant Group

Monday, June 8 (ongoing on the second Monday of each month)

2:00 pm - 3:30 pm

Fieldstone Retirement Community

The Cedars Women's Covenant Group would welcome adding several new members committed to sharing experiences and feelings on a specific topic in a confidential setting. If you are new to Cedars, this is a great way to get acquainted, and if you're a long-standing member, it's a way to deepen your friendships.

If you are interested or want more information, contact Fran Korten or send an email to office@cedarsuuchurch.org using this link.

Cedars Men's Group

Tuesday, June 9 (ongoing the second Tuesday of each month)

3:00 pm - 4:30 pm

Cedars Center

The Cedars Men's Group welcomes any men who would like to consider joining to share experiences and feelings on a specific topic in a confidential setting.

If interested or want more information, contact Herb Hethcote or Ed Clemens or send an email to office@cedarsuuchurch.org for Men's Group information using this link.

Cedars Music Committee

Friday, June 12 (ongoing on the second Friday of each month)

1:30 pm - 3:00 pm

Cedars Center

The Cedars Music Committee welcomes anyone interested in joining to promote, advocate, nurture, and sustain music programs at Cedars.

If you are interested or want more information, contact Fran Korten or send an email to office@cedarsuuchurch.org using this link.

A World Appears: A Journey into Consciousness

by Michael Pollan

When it comes to the phenomenon that is consciousness, there is one-point scientists, philosophers, and researchers can all agree on with a level of certainty: that it feels like something to be ourselves. And yet, the fact that each and every one of us has a subjective experience of the world continues to be one of the greatest mysteries in nature. How is it that our mental operations are accompanied by feelings, thoughts, and a sense of self? What would studying the idea of an inner life even look like, considering we have as little distance and perspective on it as fish do of the sea? What began for Michael Pollan as a startling awareness of his own consciousness soon evolved into a greater fascination with this strange and elusive phenomenon.

In A WORLD APPEARS, Pollan traces the unmapped continent that is consciousness via several radically different perspectives—scientific, philosophical, spiritual, historical, and psychedelic—to see what each has to teach us about this central kernel of our lives.

Please get in touch with Herb Hethcote with any questions by sending an email to office@cedarsuuchurch.org using this link.

Ukulele Jam Group

Saturday, June 27 (ongoing on the last Saturday of each month)

12:30 pm - 2:00 pm

Cedars Center

A new Ukulele Jam Group is taking shape, and everyone in the Cedars community is welcome to join in. Bring your own instrument but we also have plenty to share.

Please think about 3 favorite and easy songs you'd like to play. Send to Rebecca Kim to office@cedarsuuchurch.org using this link.

She has the Ultimate Guitar app and projects the chords and lyrics on the big screen. Makes it super fun and easy for us all to JAM!!!

If you are interested or want more information, contact Naomi Gary, or send an email to office@cedarsuuchurch.org using this link.

More About Cedars

Cedars Ride Matching Survey

Sharing a ride with someone to our services on Sunday mornings at The Island School is a great way for us to help our neighbors, build community, and take care of the earth at the same time!

Please take a few seconds to answer two simple questions in the survey linked below, and our Cedars Care Team will try to match up folks who are willing to drive and folks who would appreciate a ride on Sunday mornings and live in the same area.

Once a potential match(es) has been identified and communicated to the drivers and those wanting rides, they will be responsible for working out the details with each other. You can also talk to Susan Shaffer about this effort to match up potential drivers and riders.

Members and Friends of Cedars

Do you know someone looking for a calm, welcoming place to work—perhaps for a remote job or small practice? We're seeking a subletter who would feel at home in a space grounded in Unitarian values such as respect, inclusivity, and community-mindedness.

A bright, furnished 8' x 15' office is available within a quiet, peaceful professional suite just two blocks from the local movie theater. The space includes access to a shared conference room, small kitchen, and bathroom. It features exterior windows, a comfortable two-seat couch, a corner desk, and bookshelves—move-in ready and well-suited for consultants, therapists, or remote workers seeking a thoughtful, values-aligned environment.

Rent is $700 per month.

Cedars Childcare on Sunday Mornings

Good news! We offer childcare for families with young children during our Sunday services! If you know a family that hasn't been able to attend on Sundays because of a lack of childcare, please tell them about this. We look forward to welcoming some new faces that otherwise wouldn't be able to be with us on Sunday mornings! Click this link for details about how we provide childcare on Sundays.
