This Week At Cedars

Leaning into the Love and Courage of Our Ancestors:
Celebrating the Day of the Dead

Sunday, November 1

10:00 am

The Island School

Reverend Margo Rinehart, Cedars Minister

David Thomas, Worship Associate

During the fall, this time of change and in a time that can feel confusing and overwhelming, we will gather together to take a moment to remember those who have gone before us. Those who walked with us for a time. Those who still inspire us with their courage and commitment, no matter how visible or quietly expressed. Please bring a photo or other item that reminds you of your loved one for our communal altar.

Reverend Margo Rinehart serves Cedars by welcoming people from diverse theological and religious backgrounds and spiritual beliefs on their journeys to learn from one another, search for truth, and answer the call of love and justice.

This Sunday, November 1, at 2:00 am. Don't forget to turn your clocks back one hour!

Volunteer Opportunity at Cedars

We've got a great volunteer opportunity and we're looking for a few more helping hands to join our setup crew. We already have three wonderful volunteers, and adding a couple more will make Sunday mornings run even more smoothly.

You'll arrive around 9:10 am, help set up chairs and tables, enjoy some camaraderie, and be wrapped up by 11:30 am. If you're ready to pitch in and make a difference, please contact Dave Coursen at office@cedarsuuchurch.org or call us at the office (206)780-0373.

Election Night Invitation to gather

Tuesday, November 3

7:00 pm – 9:00 pm

Treehouse Café

4569 Lynwood Center Rd. NE on Bainbridge Island

Wear your Cedars T-shirt if possible!

Join fellow Cedars members on Election Night. Two years ago, we gathered to watch the returns together, with early results from the East Coast already appearing on the screen. It was a meaningful way to share the moment as a community.

Message From Reverend Margo

Prayer on the Eve of an Election

by Tess Baumberger

Spirit of Harvest,

Grant us wisdom and discernment so that we may choose those of peaceful heart, of clear mind and of servant spirit.

Help us to winnow the grain from the chaff and to reap the legacy of freedom our founders planted for all of us.

Help us gather together as one people united in concern for this country founded upon such promising ideals.

Spirit of Healing,

Grant that we may bridge the breaches that have opened between us.

Help us to understand one another, to listen to the stories of who we are,

and to find common ground on which we can stand and walk together.

Upcoming Sunday Service

Sunday, November 8

Super Suppers Volunteers:

Super Appreciated!

We have a great team serving Super Suppers each month to an appreciative group of Islanders. For many years, we have teamed up with Kol Shalom to provide this much-needed service on the last Tuesday of the month, at Eagle Harbor Congregational Church in Winslow. However, we need more volunteers!

- to bring side dishes and help with set-up, serving, and cleanup
- or help warm up the premade main dish, set up, and serve.

Typically, we provide side dishes or prepare the main dishes on alternating months. You can sign up to help with one or more slots using this link, whatever works for you, and your help will be SUPER APPRECIATED! Our next opportunity is Tuesday, November 24.

For more information about Super Suppers, please use this link to email Mike Cox at socialaction@cedarsuuchurch.org.

Suquamish Community Kitchen

Every other month, Cedars takes the lead in preparing and serving a free, nourishing meal for anyone in our community through the Suquamish Community Kitchen. These meals require many helping hands to cook, serve, and clean up. Each role plays a vital part in making the evening run smoothly.

We invite you to sign up to join the team using this link. Your time and energy will make a meaningful difference. For more information, please email Heidi Parkington-Thal at office@cedarsuuchurch.org using this link.

Finding the Mother Tree: Discovering the Wisdom of the Forest

NEW YORK TIMES BEST SELLER • From the world's leading forest ecologist who forever changed how people view trees and their connections to one another and to other living things in the forest—a moving, deeply personal journey of discovery

Suzanne Simard is a pioneer on the frontier of plant communication and intelligence; her TED talks have been viewed by more than 10 million people worldwide.

In this, her first book, now available in paperback, Simard brings us into her world, the intimate world of the trees, in which she brilliantly illuminates the fascinating and vital truths--that trees are not simply the source of timber or pulp, but are a complicated, interdependent circle of life; that forests are social, cooperative creatures connected through underground networks by which trees communicate their vitality and vulnerabilities with communal lives not that different from our own.

Simard writes--in inspiring, illuminating, and accessible ways —how trees, living side by side for hundreds of years, have evolved, how they learn and adapt their behaviors, recognize neighbors, compete and cooperate with one another with sophistication, characteristics ascribed to human intelligence, traits that are the essence of civil societies--and at the center of it all, the Mother Trees: the mysterious, powerful forces that connect and sustain the others that surround them.
